We are looking primarily at programs already adopted or being developed by other Agency components.

b. Resources: Other than possible developments related to Part IIIa above there is no change of direction or emphasis requiring increased resources. Further, while the activities of this office over the planning period will no doubt involve a wider spectrum of subjects and a quantitative acceleration, the attached summary of fund and position requirements reflects a net reduction in positions when compared to last years summary, i.e., two less positions through fiscal 1972; three less in 1973; two less in 1974; one less in 1975; and, by extension, in 1976.
